

Aleksandra Szewczuk (b. 1982, Gdynia) is a Polish contemporary painter known for contemplative abstract works on raw canvas exploring matter and consciousness. She lives and works in Sopot, collaborating within institutional and independent art contexts including the Spaceless Gallery (Paris / New York).